Revolutionary Letter #1

I have just realized that the stakes are myself I have no other ransom money, nothing to break or barter but my life my spirit measured out, in bits, spread over the roulette table, I recoup what I can nothing else to shove under the nose of the maitre de jeu nothing to thrust out the window, no white flag this flesh all I have to offer, to make the play with this immediate head, what it comes up with, my move as we slither over this go board, stepping always (we hope) between the lines

Revolutionary Letter #2

The value of an individual life a credo they taught us to instil fear, and inaction, 'you only live once' a fog in our eyes, we are endless as the sea, not separate, we die a million times a day, we are born a million times, each breath life and death: get up, put on your shoes, get started, someone will finish

Tribe

an organism, one flesh, breathing joy as the stars breathe destiny down on us, get going, join hands, see to business, thousands of sons will see to it when you fall, you will grow a thousand times in the bellies of your sisters

store water; make a point of filling your bathtub at the first news of trouble: they turned off the water in the 4th ward for a whole day during the Newark riots; or better yet make a habit of keeping the tub clean and full when not in use change this once a day, it should be good enough for washing, flushing toilets when necessary and cooking, in a pinch, but it's a good idea to keep some bottled water handy too get a couple of five gallon jugs and keep them full for cooking

store food – dry stuff like rice and beans stores best goes farthest. SALT VERY IMPORTANT: it's health and energy healing too, keep a couple pounds sea salt around, and, because we're spoiled, some tins tuna, etc. to keep up morale – keep up the sense of 'balanced diet' 'protein intake' remember the stores may be closed for quite some time, the trucks may not enter your section of the city for weeks, you can cool it indefinitely with 20 lb brown rice

20 lb whole wheat flour

10 lb cornmeal

10 lb good beans – kidney or soy

5 lb sea salt

2 qts good oil dried fruit and nuts add nutrients and a sense of luxury to this diet, a squash or coconut in a cool place in your pad will keep six months.

remember we are all used to eating less than the 'average American' and take it easy before we ever notice we're hungry the rest of the folk will be starving used as they are to meat and fresh milk daily and help will arrive, until the day no help arrives and then you're on your own.

hoard matches, we aren't good at rubbing sticks together any more a tinder box is useful, if you can work it don't count on gas stove, gas heater electric light keep hibachi and charcoal, CHARCOAL STARTER a help kerosene lamp and candles, learn to keep warm with breathing remember the blessed American habit of bundling

Left to themselves people grow their hair.

Left to themselves they take off their shoe's.

Left to themselves they make love sleep easily share blankets, dope & children they are not lazy or afraid they plant seeds, they smile, they speak to one another. The word coming into its own: touch of love; on the brain, the ear.

We return with the sea, the tides we return as often as leaves, as numerous as grass, gentle, insistent, we remember the way, our babes toddle barefoot thru the cities of the universe.

Revolutionary Letter #5

at some point you may be called upon to keep going for several days without sleep: keep some ups around, to be clearheaded, avoid 'comedown' as much as possible, take vitamin B along with amphetamines, try powdered guarana root, available at herb drugstores, it is an up used by Peruvian mountainfolk, tastes like mocha (bitter) can be put in tea will clear your head, increase oxygen supply keep you going past amphetamine wooziness

you may have to crash, under tension, keep some downs on hand, you may have to cool out sickness, or freak-out, or sorrow, keep some downs on hand, I don't mean tranquillizers, ye olde fashioned SLEEPING PILL (sleep heals heads, heals souls) chloryll hydrate (Mickey Finn) one of the best, but nembutal, etc. OK in a pinch, remember no liquor with barbiturates

you will need painkillers, darvon is glorified shit, stash some codeine & remember it's about five times more effective if taken with aspirin ups, downs & painkillers are the essence: antibiotics for extreme infections, any good wide-spectrum one will do, avoid penicillin too many allergies, speaking of which cortisone is good for really bad attacks

(someone who freaks out asthma-style, or with hives)

USE ALL THESE AS LITTLE

as possible, side effects multifarious and they cloud the brain tend to weaken the body and obscure judgment ginseng tea, ginger compresses, sea salt, prayer and love

are better healers, easier come by, save the others for life and death trips, you will know when you see one

Return to Contents

Revolutionary Letter #6

avoid the folk who find Bonnie and Clyde too violent who see the blood but not the energy form they love us and want us to practice birth control they love us and want the Hindus to kill their cows they love us and have a colorless tasteless powder which is the perfect synthetic food . . .

there are those who can tell you how to make molotov cocktails, flamethrowers, bombs whatever you might be needing find them and learn, define your aim clearly, choose your ammo with that in mind

it is not a good idea to tote a gun or knife unless you are proficient in its use all swords are two-edged, can be used against you by anyone who can get 'em away from you it is possible even on the east coast to find an isolated place for target practice success will depend mostly on your state of mind: meditate, pray, make love, be prepared at any time, to die but don't get uptight: the guns will not win this one, they are an incidental part of the action which we better damn well be good at, what will win is mantras, the sustenance we give each other, the energy we plug into (the fact that we touch share food)

the buddha nature of everyone, friend and foe, like a million earthworms tunnelling under this structure till it falls

Everytime you pick the spot for a be-in a demonstration, a march, a rally, you are choosing the ground for a potential battle.

You are still calling these shots.

Pick your terrain with that in mind.

Remember the old gang rules:

stick to your neighborhood, don't let them lure you to Central Park everytime, I would hate to stumble bloody out of that park to find help:

Central Park West, or Fifth Avenue, which would you choose?

go to love-ins

with incense, flowers, food, and a plastic bag with a damp cloth in it, for tear gas, wear no jewelry wear clothes you can move in easily, wear no glasses contact lenses earrings for pierced ears are especially hazardous try to be clear in front, what you will do if it comes to trouble

if you're going to try to split stay out of the center don't stampede or panic others don't waver between active and passive resistance know your limitations, bear contempt neither for yourself, nor any of your brothers

NO ONE WAY WORKS, it will take all of us shoving at the thing from all sides to bring it down.

advocating the overthrow of government is a crime overthrowing it is something else altogether, it is sometimes called revolution

but don't kid yourself: government is not where it's at: it's only a good place to start:

1. kill head of Dow Chemical
2. destroy plant
3. MAKE IT UNPROFITABLE FOR THEM to build again i.e., destroy the concept of money as we know it, get rid of interest, savings, inheritance

(Pound's money, as dated coupons that come in the mail to everyone, and are void in 30 days is still a good idea) or, let's start with no money at all and invent it if we need it or, mimeograph it and everyone print as much as they want and see what happens declare a moratorium on debt the Continental Congress did 'on all debts public and private'

& no one 'owns' the land it can be held for use, no man holding more than he can work, himself and family working let no one work for another except for love, and what you make above your needs be given to the tribe

a Common-Wealth

None of us knows the answers, think about these things.

The day will come when we have to know the answers.

These are transitional years and the dues will be heavy.

Change is quick but revolution will take A while.

America has not even begun as yet.

This continent is seed.

drove across San Joaquin Valley with Kirby Doyle
grooving
getting free Digger meat for Free City Convention
grooving
behind talk of Kirby's family been here a long time
grooving
friendship renewed, neat pickup truck, we stopped at a gas station man uptight at the sight of us, sight of Kirby's hair, his friendly loose face, my hair, our dress man surly, uptight, we drove away brought down (across fields of insecticide and migrant workers) and
'Man' I said
'that cat so uptight, what's he so uptight about, it's not your hair, not really, it's just what the TV tells him about hippies got him scared, what he reads in his magazines got him scared, we got to come out from behind the image sit down with him, if he sat down to a beer with you he'd find a helluva lot more to say than he'll find with the man who makes your image he's got nothing in common with the men who run his mind, who tell him what to think of us'

SMASH THE MEDIA, I said, AND BURN THE SCHOOLS so people can meet, can sit and talk to each other, warm and close no TV image flickering between them.

the vortex of creation is the vortex of destruction the vortex of artistic creation is the vortex of self destruction the vortex of political creation is the vortex of flesh destruction flesh is in the fire, it curls and terribly warps fat is in the fire, it drips and sizzling sings bones are in the fire they crack tellingly in subtle hieroglyphs of oracle charcoal singed

the smell of your burning hair for every revolutionary must at last will his own destruction rooted as he is in the past he sets out to destroy

Return to Contents

now let me tell you what is a Brahmasastra Brahmasastra, hindu weapon of war near as I can make out a flying wedge of mind energy hurled at the foe by god or hero or many heroes hurled at a problem or enemy cracking it

Brahmasastra can be made by any or all can be made by all of us straight or tripping, thinking together like: all of us stop the war at nine o'clock tomorrow, each take one soldier see him clearly, love him, take the gun out of his hand, lead him to a quiet spot sit him down, sit with him as he takes a joint of viet cong grass from his pocket . . .

by all of us, tripping together winter solstice at home, or in park, or wandering sitting with friends blinds closed, or on porch, no be-in no need to gather publicly just gather spirit, see the forest growing put back the big trees put back the buffalo

the grasslands of the midwest with their herds of elk and deer put fish in clean Great Lakes desire that all surface water on the planet be clean again. Kneel down and drink from whatever brook or lake you conjure up.

are you prepared to hide someone in your home indefinitely say, two to six weeks, you going out for food, etc., so he never hits the street, to keep your friends away coolly, so they ask no questions, to nurse him, or her, as necessary, to know 'first aid' and healing (not to freak out at the sight of torn or half-cooked flesh) to pass him on at the right time to the next station, to cross the Canadian border, with a child so that the three of you look like one family, no questions asked, or fewer, to stash letters, guns, or bombs forget about them till they are called for, to KEEP YOUR MOUTH SHUT not to 'trust'
even your truelove, that is, lay no more knowledge on him than he needs to do his part of it, a kindness we all must extend to each other in this game

When you seize Columbia, when you seize Paris, take the media, tell the people what you're doing what you're up to and why and how you mean to do it, how they can help, keep the news coming, steady, you have 70 years of media conditioning to combat, it is a wall you must get through, somehow, to reach the instinctive man, who is struggling like a plant for light, for air when you seize a town, a campus, get hold of the power stations, the water, the transportation, forget to negotiate, forget how to negotiate, don't wait for De Gaulle or Kirk to abdicate, they won't, you are not 'demonstrating' you are fighting a war, fight to win, don't wait for Johnson or Humphrey or Rockefeller, to agree to your terms take what you need, 'it's free because it's yours'

we are eating up the planet, the New York Times takes a forest, every Sunday, Los Angeles draws its water from the Sacramento Valley the rivers of British Columbia are ours on lease for 99 years every large factory is an infringement of our god-given right to light and air to clean and flowing rivers stocked with fish to the very possibility of life for our children's children, we will have to look carefully, i.e., do we really want/need electricity and at what cost in natural resource human resource do we need cars, when petroleum pumped from the earth poisons the land around for 100 years, pumped from the car poisons the hard-pressed cities, or try this statistic, the USA has 5% of the world's people uses over 50% of the world's goods, our garbage holds matter for survival for uncoun'underdeveloped' nations

we will all feel the pinch there will not be a Cadillac and a 40,000 dollar home for everyone simply the planet will not bear it

What there will be is enough food, enough of the 'necessities', luxuries will have to go by the board even the poorest of us will have to give up something to live free

let's talk about splitting, splitting is an art frequently called upon in revolution retreat, says the I Ching, must not be confused with flight, and furthermore, frequently, it furthers ONE TO HAVE SOMEWHERE TO GO

i.e., know in advance the persons/place you can go to, means to get there keep money (cash) in house for travelling an extra set of i.d., Robert Williams was warned by his own TV set when the Man was coming for him, he had his loot at home, his wife and kids all crossed the country with him, into CANADA and on to CUBA

it's a good idea to have good, working transportation 'wheels', one friend has two weeks stashed in his VW bus food, water, matches, clothing, blankets, gas, he can go at least that long, before he hits a town, can leave at any time something to think about . . .

(for The Poor People's Campaign)

if what you want is jobs for everyone, you are still the enemy, you have not thought thru, clearly what that means

if what you want is housing, industry

(G.E. on the Navaho reservation)

a car for everyone, garage, refrigerator, TV, more plumbing, scientific freeways, you are still the enemy, you have chosen to sacrifice the planet for a few years of some science fiction Utopia, if what you want still is, or can be, schools where all our kids are pushed into one shape, are taught it's better to be 'American' than black or Indian, or Jap, or PR, where Dick and Jane become and are the dream, do you look like Dick's father, don't you think your kid secretly wishes you did if what you want is clinics where the AMA can feed you pills to keep you weak, or sterile shoot germs into your kids, while Merck & Co grows richer if you want

free psychiatric help for everyone so that the shrinks pimps for this decadence, can make it flower for us, if you want if you still want a piece a small piece of suburbia, green lawn laid down by the square foot color TV, whose radiant energy kills brain cells, whose subliminal ads brainwash your children, have taken over your dreams degrees from universities which are nothing more than slum landlords, festering sinks of lies, so you too can go forth and lie to others on some greeny campus

THEN YOU ARE STILL
THE ENEMY, you are selling yourself short, remember you can have what you ask for, ask for everything

Revolutionary Letter #20

(for Huey Newton)

I will not rest till men walk free & fearless on the earth each doing in the manner of his blood & tribe, peaceful in the free air till all can seek, unhindered the shape of their thought no black cloud fear or guilt between them & the sun, no babies burning young men locked away, no paper world to come between flesh & flesh in human encounter

till the young women come into their own, honored & fearless birthing strong sons loving & dancing till the young men can at last lose some of their sternness, return to young men's thoughts, till laughter bounces off our hills & fills our plains

Can you own land, can you own house, own rights to other's labor, (stocks, or factories or money, loaned at interest) what about the yield of same, crops, autos airplanes dropping bombs, can you own real estate, so others pay you rent? to whom does the water belong, to whom will the air belong, as it gets rarer? the american indians say that a man can own no more than he can carry away on his horse.

what do you want your kids to learn, do you care if they know factoring, chemical formulae, theory of numbers, equations, philosophy, semantics symbolic logic, latin, history, socalled, which is merely history of mind of western man, least interesting of numberless manifestations on this planet?

do you care

if he learns to eat off the woods, to set a broken arm, to mend his own clothes, cook simple food, deliver a calf or baby? if there are cars should he not be able to keep his running?

how will he learn these things, will he learn them cut off in a plaster box, encased in a larger cement box called 'school' dealing with paper from morning till night, grinding no clay or mortar, no pigment, setting no seedlings in black earth come spring, how will he know to trap a rabbit, build a raft, to navigate by stars, or find safe ground to sleep on? what is he doing all his learning years inside, as if the planet were no more than a vehicle for carrying our plastic constructs around the sun

A lack of faith is simply a lack of courage one who says 'I wish I could believe that' means simply that he is coward, is pleased to be spectator, on this scene where there are no spectators where all hands not actually working are working against as they lie idle, folded in lap, or holding up newspapers full of lies, or wrapped around steering wheel, on one more pleasure trip

Have you thought about the American aborigines who will inhabit this continent? Cave dwellers, tent people, tree dwellers, will your great-grandchildren be among them? Will they sell artifacts – abalone or wool – to the affluent highly civilized Africans who come here in the summer, will they wear buckskin, or cotton, loincloth, run down deer, catch fish barehanded, build teepees, hogans, remember to use the wheel, to write, to speak, or simply drum & pipe, smiling, will your great-grandchildren be among them?

Know every way out of your house, where it goes, every alley on the block, which back yards connect, which walls are scalable, which bushes will hold a man.

Construct at least one man-sized hiding place in your walls, know for sure which neighbors will let you sneak in the back door & saunter out the front while the man is parked in your driveway, or tearing your pad apart, which neighbors won't be home, which cellar doors are open – whom you can summon in your neighborhood to do your errands, check the block, set up a getaway while you sit tight inside & your house is watched . . .

How much can we afford to lose, before we win, can we cut hair, or give up drugs, take job, join Minute Men, marry, wear their clothes, play bingo, what can we stomach, how soon does it leave its mark, can we living straight in a straight part of town still see our people, can we live if we don't see our people? 'It is better to lose & win, than win & be defeated' sd Gertrude Stein, which wd you choose?

O my brothers busted for pot, for looting, for loving young beautiful brothers & sisters, for holding out hope in both hands to the Man, enraging him

O my brothers, freaking out this moment this beautiful summer evening in all the cages of America while the sun goes down on this fabled & holy land:

know that we have this land, we are filling its crevices its caves and forests, its coastlines and holy places with our mating flesh, with the fierce play of our children our numbers increasing we are approaching your cells, to cut you loose to march triumphant with you, crying out to Maitreya, across the Pacific beware of those who say we are the beautiful losers who stand in their long hair and wait to be punished who weep on beaches for our isolation we are not alone: we have brothers in all the hills we have sisters in the jungles and in the ozarks we even have brothers on the frozen tundra they sit by their fires, they sing, they gather arms they multiply: they will reclaim the earth nowhere we can go but they are waiting for us no exile where we will not hear welcome home 'goodmorning sister, let me work with you goodmorning brother, let me fight by your side' remember to wear a hat, if you have a hat and stick your hair inside it, if it's long hair or don't, wear shoes if it's snowing and you have shoes remember they buy out all the leaders, be a leader if you want to be bought out, but remember to tell the truth, just before they buy you, tell the truth loud, and the kids will hear you, not hear your money as it falls on the liquorstore counter, day after day not hear your dreams of nightmare betrayal and torture not hear your mercedes, they'll hear the truth you spoke they'll believe you and honor you after you die, brought down by that cia bullet you can't avoid just by taking their money they'll believe you and DO WHAT YOU SAY NOT WHAT YOU DO not all the works of Mozart worth one human life not all the brocaded of the Potala palace better we should wear homespun, than some in orlon some in Thailand silk the children of Bengal weave gold thread in silk saris six years old, eight years old, for export, they don't sing the singers are for export, Folkways records better we should all have homemade flutes and practice excruciatingly upon them, one hundred years till we learn to make our own music

not western civilization, but civilization itself is the disease which is eating us not the last five thousand years, but the last twenty thousand are the cancer not modern cities, but the city, not capitalism, but ism, art, religion, once they are separate enough to be seen and named, named art named religion, once they are not simply the daily acts of life which bring the rain, bring bread, heal, bring the herds close enough to hunt, birth the children simply the acts of song, the acts of power, now lost to us these many years, not killing a few white men will bring back power, not killing all the white men, but killing the white man in each of us, killing the desire for brocade, for gold, for champagne brandy, which sends people out of the sun and out of their lives to create COMMODITY for our pleasure, what claim do we have, can we make, on another's time, another's life blood, show me a city which does not consume the air and water for miles around it, mohenjo-daro was a blot on the village culture of India, the cities of Egypt sucked the life of millions, show me an artifact of city which has the power as flesh has power, as spirit of man has power

how far back are we willing to go? that seems to be the question, the more we give up the more we will be blessed, the more we give up, the further back we go, can we make it under the sky again, in moving tribes that settle, build, move on and build again owning only what we carry, do we need the village, division of labor, a friendly potlatch a couple of times a year, or must it be merely a 'cybernetic civilization' which may or may not save the water, but will not show us our root, or our original face, return us to the source, how far (forward is back) are we willing to go after all?

hey man let's make a revolution, let's give every man a thunderbird color TV, a refrigerator, free antibiotics, let's build apartments with a separate bedroom for every child inflatable plastic sofas, vitamin pills with all our daily requirements that come in the mail free gas & electric & telephone & no rent, why not?

hey man, let's make a revolution, let's turn off the power, turn on the stars at night, put metal back in the earth, or at least not take it out anymore, make lots of guitars and flutes, teach the chicks how to heal with herbs, let's learn to live with each other in a smaller space, and build hogans, and domes and teepees all over the place BLOW UP THE PETROLEUM LINES, make the cars into flower pots or sculptures or live in the bigger ones, why not?

rise up, my brothers, do not bow your heads any longer, or pray except to the spirit you waken, the spirit you bring to birth, it never was on earth, rise up, do not droop, smoking hash or opium, dreaming sweetness, perhaps there will be time for that, on the long beaches lying in love with the few of us who are left, but now the earth cries out for aid, our brothers and sisters set aside their childhoods, prepare to fight, what choice have we but join them, in their hands rests the survival of the very planet, the health of the solar system, for we are one with the stars and the spirit we forge they wait for, Christ, Buddha, Krishna Paracelsus, had but a taste, we must reclaim the planet, re-occupy this ground the peace we seek was never seen before, the earth BELONGS, at last, TO THE LIVING the they in this thing, did we or they kill the Indians, not me my people brought here, cheap labor to exploit a continent for them, did we or they exploit it? do you admit complicity, say 'we have to get out of Vietnam, we really should stop poisoning the water, etc.' look closer, look again, secede, declare your independence, don't accept a share of the guilt they want to lay on us MAN IS INNOCENT & BEAUTIFUL & born to perfect bliss they envy, heavy deeds make heavy hearts and to them life is suffering, stand clear.

GEOGRAPHY, U.S.A.

the east edge is megapolis, is Washington, D.C., spread out 800 miles, ecology totally fucked up, even the brothers there do not completely believe that they can win; the west edge is languorous w/wealth, there venison is brought down from the hills & figs & wine from abandoned orchards, the sisters raise their bastard young on welfare checks & rotten sprayed vegetables, talk 'free', talk end of money, for them the war is over, all the wars; the middle is hardly heard from yet, it is stirring, stretching muscles, bare bones of continent, eternal progression of young barbarians huge boiling meat-fed hordes who can't be taught there's anything to lose, angelic let me tell you, brothers, that on May 30th I went to one of our life festivals dropped acid in Tompkins Square Park with my brothers & sisters danced in the sun, till the stars came out & the pigs drove around us in a circle, where we stood touching each other & loving, then I went home & made love like a flower, like two flowers opening to each other, we were the jewel in the lotus, next morning still high wandered uptown to Natural History Museum & there in a room of Peruvian fauna, birds of paradise I saw as a past, like the dinosaurs saw birds pass from the earth & flowers, most trees & small creatures: chipmunks & rabbits & squirrels & delicate wildflowers saw the earth bare & smooth, austere plastic & efficient men feeding hydroponically, working like ants thought flatly, without regret (I have unlearned regret)

‘WHAT BEAUTIFUL CREATURES USED TO LIVE ON THE EARTH’

if the power of the word is anything, America, your oil fields burning your cities in ruins, smouldering, pillaged by children your cars broken down, at a standstill, choking the roads your citizens standing beside them, bewildered, or choosing a packload of objects (what they can carry away) if the power of the word lives, America, your power lines down eagle-eyed lines of electric, of telephone, towers of radio transmission toppled & rankling in the fields, setting the hay ablaze your newspapers useless, your populace illiterate wiping their asses with them, IF THE WORD HAS POWER YOU SHALL NOT STAND AMERICA, the wilderness is spreading from the parks you have fenced it into, already desert blows through Las Vegas, the sea licks its chops at the oily edges of Los Angeles, the camels are breeding, the bears, the elk are increasing so are the indians and the very poor do you stir in your sleep, America, do you dream of your power pastel colored oil tanks from sea to shining sea? sleep well, America, we stand by your bedside, the word has power, the chant is going up

Revolution: a turning, as the earth turns, among planets, as the sun turns round some (darker) star, the galaxy faces of pain & fear, the dawn awash among them

what is this

'overpopulation' problem, have you looked at it, clearly, do you know ten times as much land needed if we eat hamburger, instead of grain; we can all fit, not hungry, if we minimize our needs, RIP OFF LARGE, EMPTY RANCHES, make the food nutritious: chemical fertilizers have to go, nitrates poison the water; large scale machine farming has to go, the soil is blowing away (300 years to make one inch of topsoil), do you know 40% of the women of Puerto Rico already sterilized, transistor radios the 'sterilization bonus' in India; all propaganda aimed at the 'non-white' and 'poor white' populations something like 90% of the land of USA belongs to 5% of the population: how can they hold on when the hordes of the infants of the very poor grow up, grow strong the map: first goal is health strong bodies make strong spirit, Venceremos Brigade coming back from Cuba discover they know how to breathe they can get up with the sun; first thing:

to zap the sugar habit, get rid of meat

& heavy drugs, to eat no chemicals, no processed food first step:

to find out what health feels like: even keel tireless energy pouring steady through then, prana (vital energy) moving smooth thru all yr flesh: next goal release sex force — strong flesh becomes bright flesh anger becomes 'Buddha's anger' a steady roar righteous, behind yr action, not spasmodic, threatens no self-destruction; loose touch on brothers & sisters, loose force (& contain it)

(for my sisters)

As we know that blood is birth, agony breaks open doors, as we can bend, graciously, beneath burdens, undermine like rain, or earthworms, as our cries yield to the cries of the newborn, as we hear the plea in the voices around us, not words of passion or cunning, discount anger or pride, grow strong in our own strength, women's alchemy, quick arms to pull down walls, we liberate out of our knowledge, labor, sucking babes, we liberate, and nourish, as the earth

Revolutionary Letter #45

And it seems to me the struggle has to be waged on a number of different levels:

they have computers to cast the I Ching for them but we have yarrow stalks and the stars it is a battle of energies, of force-fields, what the newspapers call a battle of ideas to take hold of the magic any way we can and use it in total faith to seek help in realms we have been taught to think of as 'mythological' to contact ALL LEVELS of one's own being & loose the forces therein always seeking in this to remain psychically inconspicuous on the not so unlikely chance that those we have thought of as 'instigators' are just the front men for a gang of black magicians based 'somewhere else' in space to whom the WHOLE of earth is a colony to exploit (the 'Nova Mob' not so far out as you think)

Best not to place bodies in the line of fire but to seek other means: study the Sioux learn not to fuck up as they did – another ghost dance started on Haight Street in 1967 We ain't seen the end of it yet

Be careful.

With what relief do we fall back on the tale, so often told in revolutions that now we must organize, obey the rules, so that later we can be free. It is the point at which the revolution stops. To be carried forward later & in another country, this is the pattern, but we can break the pattern

learn now we see with all our skin, smell with our eyes too sense & sex are boundless & the call is to be boundless in them, make the joy now, that we want, no shape for space & time now but the shapes we will we submit, again, to the old values, plunge again

No to special K. No to margarine mono & di-glycerides, NSDA for coloring, causing cancer. No to white bread, bleached w/nerve gas (wonder bread). No to everything fried in hardened oil w/silicates. No to once-so-delicious salami, now red w/sodium nitrate.

No to processed cheeses. No no again to irradiated bacon, pink pasteurized milk. No to chocolate pudding like grandma never made. No thanx to coca-cola. No to freshness preserves, dough conditioners, no potassium sorbate, no aluminum silicate, NO BHA, BHT, NO

di-ethyl-propyl-glycerate.

No more ice cream? not w/embalming fluid.
Goodbye potato chips, peanut butter, jelly, jolly

Goodbye, frozen fish! (dipped & coated w/aureomycin) Fried eggs over easy w/hormones, penicillin & speed.

NOTES TOWARD AN AMERICAN HISTORY

Over & over I've look for the picture in the cloth: man standing idle & tall against horizon: "savage" landscape we stare, poverty-struck at New England pewter in farmhouse window: quote Adams, Jefferson, hew map of the sacred meadow this was the land we were promised, wasnt it? is Fresno new Jerusalem? where is Dallas? how wd Olson/Pound/Tom Paine explain Petaluma. Over & over Kirby Doyle mad tells tale of his grandfather walking out of the desert his wife & two sons waiting in a wagon (he had the mule)

& the boats in Gloucester, Newfoundland & Greece (the same) the wood carved in Alaska & New Guinea . . .
Over & over we seek that savage man sufficient & generous; we find

Rockefeller, Nixon;

sad letters of Jefferson mourning the ravaging of moundbuilders' land requesting his daughter not to neglect her French.

We; over & over; seeking line & form gold-leaf as in Sienna

"outline" as Blake

we sit on shifting ground at the edge of this ocean

"as far from Europe as you can get"

& watch the hills flicker like dreamskin

Revolutionary Letter #58

What we need to know is laws of time & space they never dream of. Seek out the ancient texts: alchemy homeopathy, secret charts of early Rosicrucians (Giordanisti).
Grok synchronicity Jung barely scratched the surface of.

LOOK TO THE "HERESIES" of EUROPE FOR BLOODROOTS (remnants of pre-colonized pre-Roman Europe): Insistent, hopeful resurgence of communards free love & joy; "in god all things are common" secret celebration of ancient season feasts & moons.
Rewrite the calendar.

Head-on war is the mistake we make time after time There is a way around it, way to outflank technology, short circuit "energy crisis": retreat & silence cunning courage & love

Look to the cities, see how "urban renewal" tears out the slums from the heart of town forces expendable poor to the edges, to some remote & indefensible piece of ground: Hunters Point, Lower East Side, Columbia Point out of sight, out of mind, & when bread riots come (conjured by cutting welfare, raising prices) the man wont hesitate to raze those ghettos & few will see, & fewer will object.

First Observable Effects of So-Called "Energy Crisis" (Fall 1973)

1. off-shore drilling renewed, Santa Barbara & elsewhere we can expect new off-shore wells to be opened regardless of consequences 2. price of crude oil shoots sky-high, making the extraction of shale oil feasible (profitable) which shale oil territory has been prepared for exploitation by forcing beef prices up, advocating beef boycotts, forcing smaller ranches toward bankruptcy 3. Peabody Coal plans to occupy Cheyenne land on legal grounds they are "incapable" of exploiting its "natural resource", i.e. don't wait to extract minerals at the cost of all else
4. grim austerity consciousness empty shelves & stiff upper lip & plenty of hoarding, reminiscent of early 40's, conditioned reflex right psychological climate for WW III 5. of course, police & military will have enough gas & how will you like to be stationary populace in the grip of a mobile army?

Take a good look at history (the American myth) check sell out of revolution by the founding fathers "Constitution written by a bunch of gangsters to exploit a continent" is what

Charles Olson told me.

Check Shay's rebellion, Aaron Burr, Nathan Hale.

Who wrote the history books where you went to school?

Check Civil War: maybe industrial north needed cheap labor, South had it, how many sincere "movement" people writers & radicals played into their hands?

Check Haymarket trial: it broke the back of strong Wobblie movement: how many jailed, fined, killed to stop that one? What's happening to us has happened a few times before let's change the script

What did it take to stop the Freedom Riders

What have we actually changed?

month I was born

they were killing onion pickers in Ohio

Month that I write this, nearly 40 years later they're killing UFW's in the state

I'm trying somehow to live in. LET'S REWRITE the history books.

History repeats itself only if we let it.

check Science: whose interest does it serve?

whose need to perpetrate mechanical dead (exploitable) universe instead of living cosmos?

whose dream those hierarchies: planets & stars blindly obeying fixed laws, as they desire us, too, to stay in place whose interest to postulate man's recent blind "descent" from "unthinking" animals our pitiable geocentric isolation:

lone voice in the stars what point in this cosmology but to drain hope of contact or change

/oppressing us w/"reason"
